BIG IDEA

We're not on mission for Jesus but with Jesus!
He invites us to join him on his mission!

KEY SCRIPTURE

Acts 17:26-28, Hebrews 12:1-3

RESOURCES

Joining Jesus on His Mission: How to Be an Everyday Missionary – Greg Finke

The Mission of God's People – Christopher J. H. Wright

SEEN

1. Prior to meeting, individually spend time meeting God in the key scripture.
2. Read the passage of scripture two times slowly and reflectively. The goal is to allow the text to sink in and resonate personally. Look for words and phrases that stand out to you and write them down.
3. Read the passage slowly one more time, pay extra attention to the parts that stood out to you the first time. Consider how these words or phrases might apply to your life right now. What might the Lord be inviting you to?
4. Respond to God in prayer, express your thoughts, feelings, and desires in relation to the scripture. Rest now in God's presence, allow for silence and stillness. Listen for God's voice and experience a deeper connection with him.

SHAPED

Thinking about the Sunday sermon, what stuck out for you in what was said?

In your time reflecting on the key scripture, what stood out to you?

Acts 17:26 indicates that God has intentionally placed us where we live and the time we live in. How does this shape the way you see your current season of life or circumstances? Where might he be asking you to join in his redeeming mission to the world right where you are?

Hebrews 12:1 speaks of weights that hinder us in our pursuit of Jesus and our ability to be his witnesses. What weights are there in your life that can affect your spiritual growth or ability to witness?

We are called to fix our eyes on Jesus so that we can persevere, not become weary and run the race before us with joy. What does this look like practically and tangibly in your life? How does our contemplation of Jesus' sacrifice build resilience and hope in us?

Use the following weekly check-in questions to keep you focus on your mission.

- How did you see God at work this week in your mission field?
- What kind of conversations did you have with your non-Christian friends?
- What acts of kindness were you able to share with them?
- How were you able to support them in prayer?
