BIG IDEA

The Pity of Jesus: The extravagant mercy of Jesus is so much better than you can possibly imagine.

KEY SCRIPTURE

Luke 17:11-19

ADDITIONAL SCRIPTURES

Luke 7:36-50

Luke 18:9-14

RESOURCES

The Freedom of Self-Forgetfulness by Timothy Keller

The Parables: Jewish Tradition and Christian Interpretation by Brad H. Young.

Baker Commentary Luke by Darrell L. Bock

SEEN

1. Prior to meeting, individually spend time meeting God in the key scripture.
2. Read the passage of scripture two times slowly and reflectively. The goal is to allow the text to sink in and resonate personally. Look for words and phrases that stand out to you and write them down.
3. Read the passage slowly one more time, pay extra attention to the parts that stood out to you the first time. Consider how these words or phrases might apply to your life right now. What might the Lord be inviting you to?
4. Respond to God in prayer, express your thoughts, feelings, and desires in relation to the scripture. Rest now in God's presence, allow for silence and stillness. Listen for God's voice and experience a deeper connection with him.

SHAPED

Thinking about the Sunday sermon what stuck out for you in what was said?

In your time reflecting on the key scripture what stood out to you?

How have you experienced the mercy of Jesus in your life?

Take turns describing yourselves in "before and after" statements, as it relates to your journey with Jesus. For example, "Before Jesus saved me I was....and since He saved me, I am now..."

Based on what has been shared in your group discussion, take some time to out loud, together, express specific gratitude and praise to Jesus.

Out of the 10 lepers who were cleansed, only one came back to praise. What do you think is the role of gratitude in the life of the follower of Jesus?

SENT

Just as we are blessed to be a blessing, in being seen by God, he invites us to truly see others. This week be mindful, is God nudging you to notice someone in your community? Reach out to that person.
