BIG IDEA

Spiritual drift and spiritual complacency are common dangers that threaten to derail followers of Jesus. We must be aware of the signs of spiritual drift and spiritual complacency and live a life of continuous repentance and surrender.

KEY SCRIPTURE

Luke 13:22-27 “Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, “Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?” He said to them, ‘Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to. Once the owner of the house gets up and closes the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading, ‘Sir, open the door for us.’ “But he will answer, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from.’ “Then they will say, ‘We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’ But he will reply, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from. Away from me, all you evildoers!’”

John 13:36-38 “Simon Peter asked him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus replied, “Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow later.” Peter asked, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.” Then Jesus answered, ‘Will you really lay down your life for me? Ver truly I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.

SEEN

1. Prior to meeting, individually spend time meeting God in the key scripture.

2. Read the passage of scripture two times slowly and reflectively. The goal is to allow the text to sink in and resonate personally. Look for words and phrases that stand out to you and write them down.

3. Read the passages slowly one more time, pay extra attention to the parts that stood out to you the first time. Consider how these words or phrases might apply to your life right now. What might the Lord be inviting you to?

4. Respond to God in prayer, express your thoughts, feelings, and desires in relation to the scripture. Rest now in God’s presence, allow for silence and stillness. Listen for God’s voice and experience a deeper connection with him.
